MYSTERIOUS BOOZE FINDS WAY INTO ROOSEVELT CAMP

In Spite of Strenuous Efforts of Officials.

DETERMINED TO KEEP LIQUOR FROM DAMSITE WORKMEN

A special from Phoenix to the Los Angeles Times says: Engineer-in-Charge L. C. Hill, at the Tonto Basin damsite, has confin-ual difficulty in the duties of his posltion of guardian angel of his camp but thus far has come out on top. In accordance with territorial law and the regulations of the interior depart ment, he has issued an ukase prohibiting the importation or sale of ilquor in or near Roosevelt, but, somehow there has been continual drunkenness in slight degree among the workmen. and particularly among the Indians

For the past week all wagons enter-Even the mail stage was held Hill's representatives, and about thirty quarts of whisky discovered. The bottles were smashed on the spot and the liquor was used to lay the dust of the road.

Still more drastic was the action taken on the camp's drug stores. By peremptory order they were forbidden to deal in a number of specified patent medicines, including several lately exposed in the Ladies' Home Journal medicines which had been found. -medicines which had been found by government analysis to contain alcohol in excess. Even the seemingly-in nocuous cologne and Jamaica ginger are under auspicion. Nearly one thousand men are on played on the works. It is probable that applications for employment would be much greater in number were it not for the distressful fact that Globe, thirty miles distant, is the nearest place where the honest toiler can get really and satisfactorily drunk The Pimas, inherently farmers, are to be aided by the government somewhat the same manner as their white brothers are being supplied with water through storage. Water is to be provided for the irrigation of the Pima reservation, on the Gila river, south of Phoenix, by pumping from wells, with power derived from the fall of water. Investigation is being made for the best water-bearing underground strata on the reservation. When this has been deterimned, congress will, without doubt, make appropriation of about half a militon dollars for the erection of a great central sales since January 1 amount to 191, pumping plant, and for the transmis- 494,000 lbs, against 226,167,000 lbs. sion of electricity thereto from some one of the government water power

Consumption Among Reds.
Consumption has gained a strong foothold among the Piris and Maricopa Indians, through contact with the whites. At the Glia Crossing mission dealers, sion station of the Presbytertar church, fifteen miles south of Phoenix are 275 Indians, many of them pro-fessing Christians. Of this number twenty-seven died during the last fiscal year, and of the deaths ten were from tuberculosis. The missionary at the settlement states that the disease is transmitted largely through the 6d for spot and 470, 12s, 6d for fucustom of the Indians to visit a dying him, usually in a tightly-crosed "wickiup" till death comes.

The most important of the prisoners is a man who is known Smith, who is sentenced to fifteen years for holding up a saloon and gambling house. This heavy sentence was not imposed wholly for that offense, but mossly for the desperate re-sistance he made when he was arrested. In the fight his companion, John Shaw, was killed, Sheriff Houck escaped by a hair, and Smith himself was badly wounded. The sheriff got on the trail of the robbers soon after the commission of the crime and accompanied by a dep overtook them at Canyon Diable When they were called upon to sur render Shaw replied by firing. A gen eral exchange of shots followed, in which the coat of the sheriff was cult As Shaw aimed at him h had just time to swerve out of way of the builet that was intended for hi stomach. He then shot and killed Shaw. Smith was aiming at the sherwhen he was brought down by th

The other convicts are a Mexican found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon, four years; unother Mexican guilty of the same kind of a crime three years; a forger, two years, and an Indian who had become so highly civilized that he was able to raise

More Fresh Fish for Yuma. Sheriff Jim Parks, of Graham coun ty, is in the city today, says the Tuc son Citizen. The Solomonville sherifi-came in this morning from Yuma. where he safely delivered four pris-oners into the custody of Warder ferry Millay. All the prisoners were sentenced by the late and little lamented Judge Tucker, Nebraska' carpetbagger.
